

SAFEGUARDING

ARCHDIOCESE OF ARMAGH

The Archdiocese of Armagh as part of the Catholic Church in Ireland recognises and upholds the dignity and rights of all people and is committed to ensuring their safety and wellbeing, and will work in partnership to do this. The Archdiocese of Armagh, as part of the Catholic Church, recognises each person as a gift from God, and we value and encourage the participation of all in activities that enhance their spiritual, physical, emotional, intellectual and social development.

The Archdiocese of Armagh (including clergy, religious, staff, volunteers and any other Church personnel) has a responsibility to safeguard children and adults at risk of harm through promoting their welfare, health and development in a safe and caring environment which supports their best interests and prevents abuse.

Anyone seeking the pastoral support of the Archdiocese with regard to an issue of safeguarding may do so through their local clergy or make direct contact with the Diocesan Safeguarding Office on 028/048 3752 5592
