

The Theology programme consists of twelve in person modules over two years. There are six modules per year, normally there are four Tuesday night modules and two weekend modules. This year our schedule is slightly different, we have three weekend modules and three modules that take place once a week for six nights per module.

The Monday and Tuesday night modules are once a week, 7pm - 9.30pm for six weeks. The weekend modules are 10am - 5pm approx. Saturday and Sunday, one in September, November and one in February. We use two venues; some modules will be in Dundalk and some in Armagh, you must attend both venues.

The fee is €1,200 per year, with a €200 deposit on the first night and the balance can be paid in instalments. This fee is per year, not per module.

The course is assignment based with no exams. You don't need any qualifications to attend the programme. As it is a part-time programme, each level is a two year programme, i.e. two years to complete certificate level, another two years to complete diploma level and a further two years to complete degree level. You don't have to complete the whole six years, you can drop out at any stage.
